

Dr. Shunsuke Managi

- Distinguished Professor, Kyushu University
- Director, Urban Institute, Kyushu University
- Director, Yunus & Shiiki Social Business Research Center, Kyushu University

Shunsuke Managi is the Distinguished Professor of Technology and Policy, Director of Urban Institute & Director of Yunus & Shiiki Social Business Research Center at the Kyushu University, Japan. Managi's research has provided evidence for the value of sustainability measurement focusing on urbanization, transportation, energy, climate change, and population change. He proposes the inclusive wealth index, which integrates biophysical quantities and monetary values of natural, human, and produced capital. Inclusive wealth comprises the assets that underlie human well-being and going beyond GDP. He is a director for Inclusive Wealth Report 2018 (IWR 2018) and IWR2023 & 2024, ISC working group member for UN' The Global Sustainable Development Report 2023, member of UN Network of Economic Statisticians - Round Table on Measuring Capitals for Sustainability, a lead author for the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC), a coordinating lead author for the Intergovernmental Platform on Biodiversity and Ecosystem Services (IPBES), a coordinating lead author UNESCO International Science and Evidence based Education Assessment, lead author of Policy Briefs T20 for the Presidency of G20 in 2022 & 2023 & task force member of T20 2024 Communiqué, In 2020 he was elected as a council member of the The Science Council of Japan. He was the recipient of a JSPS Prize and selected in Clarivate World's Influential Researchers in Highly Cited Researchers 2023-2024.